3. Please note that your prefix must have been registered with the Suffolk Horse Society prior to the registration of any animal.

Society Regulations Pertaining to Prefixes/Affixes

Bye-Law 10 of the Suffolk Horse Society

Prefixes or affixes to the names of horses and mares can be registered. Such prefix or affix shall be the sole right of the member registering or his representatives. Except a prefix or affix be registered no prescriptive title can be claimed. The registration fee for a prefix (to include use of the prefix as an affix) is £15 or such other fee as shall be determined by the Council from time to time.

Condition 6 of the Conditions of Entry to the Suffolk Horse Society Stud Book

No owner's name shall constitute or be registered as a prefix.

Condition 9 of the Conditions of Entry to the Suffolk Horse Society Stud Book

Prefixes or affixes to the names of horses and mares can be registered provided such be approved by the Council and such prefix or affix to be the sole right of the member registering or his representatives. Except a prefix or affix be registered no prescriptive title can be claimed. A breeder's prefix shall be given to each foal bred by that breeder and born in his or her ownership. A foal born to a mare which has been purchased in foal shall be given the prefix which has been registered in the purchaser's name. An affix will be given to an unregistered animal purchased and entered in the Stud Book by the purchaser.
